

PARENTS & CAREGIVERS:

Tell us about free school meals—

Take our survey!

Over the last two years, more New York schools than ever are offering universal free school meals. However, hundreds of schools are still unable to provide free school meals to all of their students.

Help us learn about the impact on New York students and families. This survey is for parents and caregivers of students attending New York schools, including schools that offer free school meals for all AND those that do not.
